

Health Services Privacy Statement

This privacy statement relates to health services provided by GMHBA Limited (GMHBA) trading as the GMHBA and includes the following practices/services:

- GMHBA Eye Care
- GMHBA Care Coordination Service
- Lara Medical Centre
- South Barwon Medical Centre
- Geelong Physiotherapy
- GMHBA Dental Care
- GMHBA Hub (which includes sister sites for South Barwon Medical Centre, Geelong Physiotherapy and GMHBA Dental Care), (together, GMHBA Health Services).

GMHBA is committed to protecting your privacy. This privacy statement explains the type of personal and sensitive information including health information we collect and how we handle that information as a part of providing GMHBA Health Services.

We understand that the information that you entrust to us is private and confidential. Our staff are trained to respect your privacy in accordance with the applicable privacy laws and our own policies and procedures.

What is personal information?

In this privacy statement 'personal information' means information or an opinion about an identified individual or an individual who is reasonably identifiable, whether the information or opinion is true or not, and whether the information or opinion is recorded in a material form or not.

Personal information includes 'sensitive information' (which includes health information, and information or an opinion about an individual's racial origin, political opinion, membership of a political association or trade union, religious beliefs, sexual preferences or criminal record). 'Health information' includes information or an opinion about the health or a disability of an individual, the individual's wishes about the provision of health services, or health services provided or to be provided to an individual. In this privacy statement, a reference to personal information includes sensitive information including health information.

How do we collect your personal information?

Personal information collected by GMHBA Health Services includes your name, date of birth, age, gender, address, contact details, and bank account or credit card details.

Sensitive information including health information collected by GMHBA Health Services includes information about your health or medical history, including details of previous health related providers of whom you've been a patient.

We generally collect personal information in person, in writing, by telephone, email, electronic form and via online services including, but not limited to, our website and mobile app. For example, we may collect information when you: make an appointment, purchase goods from us, you complete forms, send us an email, provide information during a visit to our practice, have customer interactions with us where we record system notes, voice recordings of telephone conversations and if you use our digital platforms.

With your consent, if you contact us to enquire about our products and services via our online services and any other communication channel, we may use your personal and sensitive information including health information to contact you for the purposes of providing you with the information you have requested and to follow up whether you have any interest in acquiring products and services from us.

You can let us know at any time via the contact details included in this privacy statement if you no longer wish to be contacted for these purposes. Your consent will remain current until you advise us otherwise.

Where you have provided us with personal information about other individuals (such as other immediate family members or a person for whom you are a carer), you must ensure that they are aware or will be aware of your provision of their personal information to us and how their personal information will be handled by us. If the information you are providing to us is sensitive information including health information you must first obtain their consent before providing their information to us (unless the individual is incapable of providing such consent).

We may also collect your personal information from third parties such as:

- Other healthcare services such as your private health insurance provider or Medicare
- Other health care providers (e.g. if you were referred to us by another health care professional including other GMHBA Health Services)
- Organisations engaged by GMHBA to carry out functions on our behalf such as mail and data processing, and
- Recruitment agencies when appointing employees and contractors.

We may also collect information from our digital platforms such as:

- Your IP Address, top level domain name, the date and time of your visit to our site
- The pages you have accessed or downloaded
- The address of the last site you visited, and
- Your operating system and the browser you used.

This information is collected for statistical and administrative purposes, and to improve web-based services. It does not readily identify individuals, and we will not attempt to identify individuals from the records our server generates unless it is necessary to do so for law enforcement purposes.

We may also use cookies to assign your device a user ID. Cookies contain information that allows us to identify your device. You can configure your browser or device so that it does not accept cookies, however this may minimise our ability to provide you with customised information. Further details can be found in the Terms of Use on the GMHBA website or mobile app.

When you use our digital services or ask for general information, we may deal with you without requiring you to provide personal information.

If you choose not to provide us with personal information that we request of you, we may not be able to provide you with the services you require.

For what purposes do we collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information?

How to contact us or make a complaint

If you have any concerns or complaints about the manner in which your personal information has been collected or handled by a GMHBA Health Service, please refer to the GMHBA Limited Privacy Policy (which you can access as described in the 'How to access our Privacy Policy' section).

Does your personal information get transferred outside of Australia?

From time to time we may need to disclose your personal information to organisations located outside of Australia in the ordinary course of everyday business (for example, organisations that host data processing capabilities in 'The Cloud' or facilitate the sending of emails and SMS).

If we do so, we will take reasonable steps to ensure the overseas organisations comply with Australian privacy laws.

The countries to which we may disclose personal information in the course of our functions and activities are listed below:

- United States; and
- Canada

This list is updated from time to time. You can visit our Privacy Policy at any time to view the latest version.

Direct Marketing and your privacy

From time to time, and with your consent, we may use your personal and sensitive information to contact you to provide you with information about promotions, products and services offered by us, including our private health insurance businesses and GMHBA Health Services businesses, or other service providers who have a relationship with us, that we consider may be of interest to you and your family. This includes information about GMHBA Health Services that may help improve your health and wellbeing. When we contact you it may be via mail, phone, email and/or SMS.

If you do not wish to receive marketing material from a particular GMHBA Health Service, you can let that GMHBA Health Service know at any time via the details found under the 'How to access and correct your personal information' in this privacy statement. Please note that if you are a patient of multiple GMHBA Health Services, and do not wish to receive direct marketing from any GMHBA Health Service, you will need to contact each relevant GMHBA Health Service to opt-out.

If you request not to receive marketing material, please note that we will still contact you in relation to our on-going relationship with you. For example, we will still send you appointment reminders.

Security of your information

We may store personal information we hold in hard copy documents or as electronic data in our software IT systems (and those of our service providers). We endeavour to take reasonable steps to protect all personal information that we hold from misuse and loss and to protect it from unauthorised access, modification and disclosure.

The methods we use to facilitate your information is secure include:

- Verification procedures to identify an individual before access is allowed for personal information,
- Confidentiality obligations/agreements with all employees, agents, brokers and sub-contractors,
- The use of data encryption, firewalls and other security systems for our IT platforms, and,
- Document storage security policies.
